1969 Loch Leven

Saturday 7 June. Cyril Inwood is on the extreme left of this picture. He was a highly regarded angler of his day but, according to B.C. Hall, never found form with the England team and struggled to hold his place. This can be seen in the results. But the picture below shows him and Bob Beatty being presented with a prize by Ken Johnson for best boat, almost certainly in this match, when anglers from the same side fished together. Bob was top rod on a very tough day and Cyril scored as well.

B.C. Hall lifts out his motor at the end of the Leven match. Pairs were still from the same team, as can be seen here, with Sidney Taylor in the bow. Sidney, who was captain on the day, blanked and B.C. had just the one fish.
